

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

The Raystown Builders Association (RBA) is a non-profit association of builders and related trades organized to promote home ownership for the citizens of Huntingdon County and the surrounding area, maintain the professional standards of the members, and educate its members, as well as the general public, concerning home building and its allied trades.

Benefits of membership:

- Company information listed on www.raystownbuilders.com website (averages around 100 unique hits per week)
 - Does not require that you have your own website
 - If you do have your own website, we will link to your website from the Association's website
 - Enhanced exposure if you purchase a home page ad – be the first thing people see when they visit the site
- Association's website and contact information is also linked to Huntingdon County Chamber of Commerce and Huntingdon County Visitors Bureau websites and membership directories (increased exposure)
- Quarterly meetings with topics relevant to the industry and your business
- Networking
- Education – legislation changes, code changes, certification requirements, etc.

Membership fee is $100 annually
